

HERBERT

NEW BUILD, PRIVATE.

This project involved the design of a large two storey extension with a large glazed area to create a 'sun room'.

SIPCO designed and fabricated the complete kit for this project working with the building owner to provide tuition on site.

The end result was a stunning extension featuring substantial glazed sections with all heat loss minimised due to the 150mm SIP element of the building.